Personal Career Prep

Individual Project Contributions

Group Progress (can be on project or assignments)

What Capstone tasks did you work on this week?

Taking a break for the holiday, same thing the project partner wants, and may work on redesigning the prototype during break

What did you find most valuable during the project management presentations on Friday? (E.g., practice delivering a presentation; seeing what others are doing; connecting with teammates on the master plan before the presentation...)

I find that there was different ways how each team divided up their task and have specific problems that they are facing

If you experienced any technical issues using the Zoom Room for your presentation, please briefly explain here so that we can troubleshoot for next time.
